The junior class consists of fifty-five studious members. Although our class is the smallest in high school, it makes up for it in other ways.

Several of the boys have taken part in athletics since they entered high school. Dean Bassett, Marvin Garner, Sam Bixler, and Darwin Ogburn received letters in football. Basketball letters were earned by Darwin Ogburn, and Dean Bassett. Honorable mention on the Conference football team was given to Dean Bassett, while Darwin Ogburn made the second conference basketball team.

The junior class attendant to the Homecoming Queen was Barbara Cooper. She also represented the class in the 1948 Red Raider Beauty Queen contest.

Our class was honored by having both the king and queen of the all school carnival. They were Elinor Wallace and Dean Bassett.

We are well represented in the high school music department. Besides having several representatives in Mixed Chorus and the Aeolian Club, two members of our class are in the first trio and sextet. They are Evelyn Showers and Joan Fife.

The junior class is represented by four members on the governing body of the school, the Student Council. They are Nadine Costin, Bob Leonard, Anita Rogers, and Charles Lundquist. Nadine was elected secretary of this organization at the beginning of the school year.

The class is under the leadership of four able students. Our president is Eugene Van Pelt. His assistants are vice-president, Darwin Ogburn, secretary, Anita Rogers, and Treasurer, Bob Leonard.

Our class has had one party this year. It was in November at the home of our president. Our big party of the year is when we entertain the seniors at the spring prom. This will be our biggest undertaking and it will take the place of other smaller parties.

The Junior Class Play is another big part of activity for the juniors. "Home Sweet Homicide" was given by a large cast in April. The cast included: Anita Rogers, Joan Fife, Lorene Farmer, Fred Andrews, Evelyn Showers, Dean Bassett, Evelyn McGregor, Dean Carothers, Eugene Van Pelt, Darwin Ogburn, Bill Keever, Bob Leonard, Dick Scott, Mary Ryan, Gene Costin, Mark Bain, Arlene Hargan, Betty Groff, and Patty Beath. It was well presented and received.

The sponsors of the junior class are Rowena Turner, Lou Ellen Henderson, and Milan Miller. They all take an active part in supervising the work of the class.

The highest honor that can be attained by any student of Corning High School is to be chosen as a member of the National Honor Society.

This organization is made up of those students of Corning High who have the qualifications of Character, Leadership, Service, and Scholarship which are necessary for membership.

Fifteen percent is the greatest number of students that can be chosen from any one class. Five percent of these are selected when the class is in its Junior year. The remaining ten percent is chosen in the Senior year.

Qualifications for membership are determined as follows: Scholarship - - one must rank in the upper one-third of his class. Service - - is judged on the basis of what the student has done in serving the school such as committee and staff work, representing the school in interclass and interschool competition, showing courtesy in assisting visitors, teachers and other students and also by other worthwhile services given to the school and the community.

Leadership - - demonstrated by the student which takes the lead in classroom and homeroom discussions and organizations by prompting worthwhile school activities, by taking the lead in improving the civic life of the school and by holding officers and other positions of responsibility.

Character - - is indicated by the manner in which a student meets his own responsibilities and pledges to the other students and the teachers, the degree to which he lives up to the high standards of honesty and reliability, by cooperating in complying with the school regulations and by demonstrating desirable qualities of personality such as cheerfulness, neatness, friendliness and dependability, and also by maintaining the highest principles of morality.

RED RAIDER STAFF

H. S.

SPEECH ACTIVITIES

ONE ACT PLAY

The setting of the play "The DEAR DEPARTED" is the sitting room of the home of Amelia and Henry Slater. Everyone is in mourning because of the supposed death of Grandfather Abel. Elizabeth Jordan, Amelia's sister, and her husband Ben appear to collect their share of his belongings. The two greedy daughters are busily dividing them when Victoria, Amelia's daughter, announces grandfather is getting up from his bed. When he finds they are dividing his things between themselves he makes an announcement that he is to be married soon and would will all his things to his wife when he did die.

This play was given in Osceola, February 16 in the Preliminary Contest.

Cast:

Amelia Slater	Betty Groff
Elizabeth Jordan	Evelyn McGregor
Henry Slater	Dale Jackson
Ben Jordan	Ronald Bycroft
Victoria	Marleta Hill
Abel Merryweather	Dick Huntsman

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

The Senior class presented a 3-act comedy, "June Mad," November 25th and 26th. The production was directed by Samuel Fethers, our speech instructor.

The cast for the play was as follows: Penny Wood - Mary Jean Waters, Chuck Harris - Raphael Mack, Mrs. Wood - Benita Moore, Elmer Tuttle - John Nevius, Dr. Wood - David Bain, Effie - Dorothy Harvey, Milly Lou - Mary Alice Carothers, G. Mervyn Robert - Danny Dixon, Roger Van Vleck - Robert Snodgrass, Mr. Harris - Frank Johnson, Shirley Wentworth - Patricia Flowers, Ralph Wentworth - Paul Farris, Julie Harris - Joan Haley.

The play centered around the Wood family, who lived in a small Mid-West town. Penny was a typical high school senior and was, at the moment, wholly uninterested in the boy next door, Chuck Harris. Chuck was occupied with the building of a glider at Elmer Tuttle's, who was the handy man for the Wood family. Chuck's father, is not in sympathy with Chuck's glider. Julie, who was Chuck's sister, was a young lady who liked attention from the fellows.

Mervyn Roberts, was Mrs. Wood's brother, who was home for a visit from college. He was accompanied by a friend, Roger VanVleck. Roger was quite a lady's man, and was supposed to assist Mervyn in his romance with Julie. Milly Lou, was a 12-year old who thought she was in love with Mervyn. The resulting mix-up of the boys and girls at a party given by Mrs. Wood provided some entertaining scenes. Effie, the maid in the Wood house, added to the comedy. Shirley and Ralph Wentworth were neighborhood friends of Penny.

Villisca 7 - - Corning 6

Friday, September 12, the Red Raiders met the Villisca Blue Jays at Villisca. Neither team scored in the first quarter but in the second Corning's Leonard plunged across to put Corning in the lead. The attempt for extra point was unsuccessful. In the third quarter Villisca succeeded in making a touchdown and the extra point which won the game.

Greenfield 19 - - Corning 7

In their second game of the season the Raiders journeyed to Greenfield to meet a very powerful Greenfield team. The Raider line was unable to withhold the much heavier Greenfield line and as a result the Greenfield team made many long gains through the line. The final score was Greenfield 19, Corning 7. Corning's touchdown was a pass from Johnson to Ogburn.

Corning 19 - - Clarinda 19

Although the game between Corning and Clarinda, Friday, September 26, ended in a tie it was generally conceded that the Red Raiders outplayed the Cardinals. Clarinda took an early lead but at halftime Corning had overtaken them by a score of 19 to 12. However in the second half Clarinda managed to make another touchdown tying the score at 19 to 19. There was no further scoring and the game ended in a tie.

Atlantic 26 - - Corning 7

In the first contest on their home field the Raiders were defeated at the hands of the Atlantic Trojans by a score of 26 to 7. The Raider's only consolation concerning the one sided battle is that Atlantic defeated every other challenger of the season and many by a margin far exceeding that of the Corning game. Corning's only touchdown was made by Frank Johnson in the fourth quarter.

FOOTBALL

Undoubtedly the most humiliating defeat of the season was the 44 to 0 homecoming defeat of Corning by Shenandoah. The chief factor in the defeat was the many successful end runs by the Mustangs.

Creston 47 - - Corning 26

Friday, October 17, the Raiders met the Creston Panthers on the Panther field Creston. Although losing by a score of 47 to 26 the Raiders excelled in the field of individual achievement. In the first quarter Frank Johnson intercepted a Creston pass on the Raider's five yard line and ran the remaining 95 yards for a Corning touchdown. Later in the game Johnson threw a 25 yard touchdown pass to Ogburn.

Corning 19 - - Lenox 7

On Friday, October 24, the Raiders traveled to Lenox for their annual game. Although Lenox took an early lead the game was tied at halftime. In the second half Leonard plunged across for two touchdowns making the final score Corning 19, Lenox 7.

Red Oak 38 - - Corning 6

In the last conference game of the season Corning was defeated by Red Oak. Corning managed to make only one touchdown, on a pass from Mack to Bassett, and the final score was Red Oak 38, Corning 6.

Corning 6 - - Bedford 0

In their last game of the season the Raiders met the non-conference foe, Bedford in the annual Armistice Day game. Neither team scored until the last two minutes of the game when Ray Mack completed a pass to Dean Bassett for the only touchdown of the game.

A BASKETBALL SQUAD

Mack, Garner, Gauthier, Bassett, Mullin, Johnson, Ogburn, Brokaw, Coach Millikin.

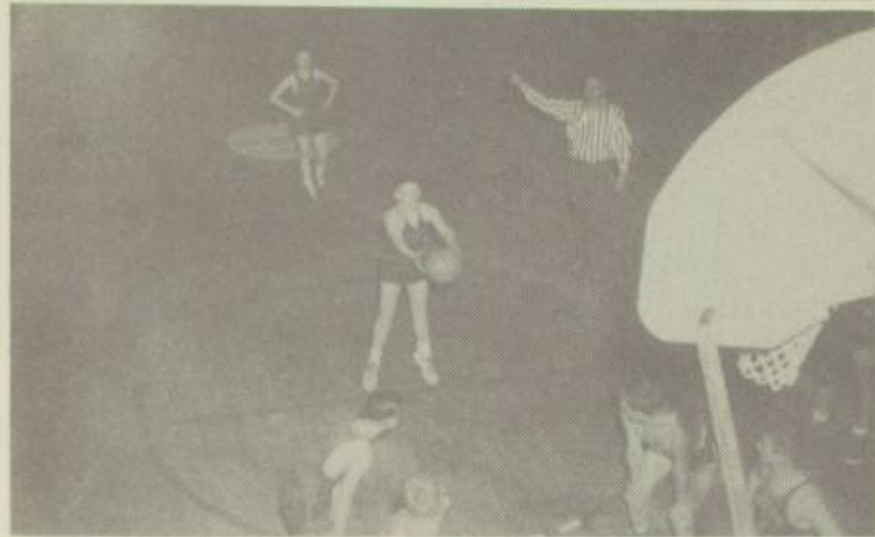

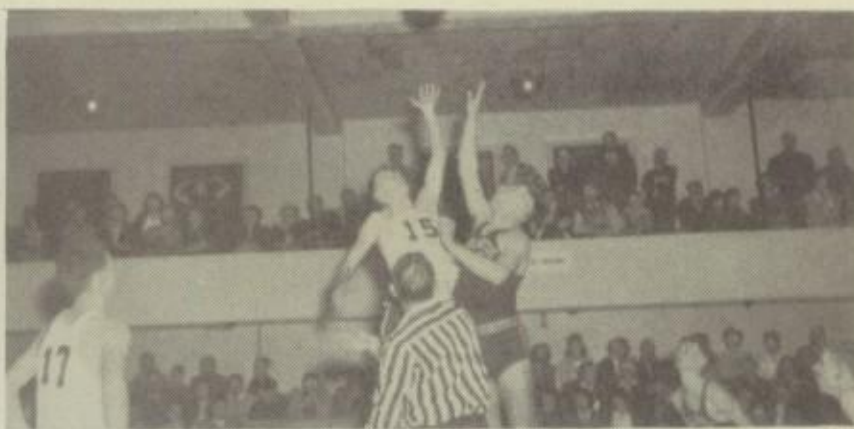

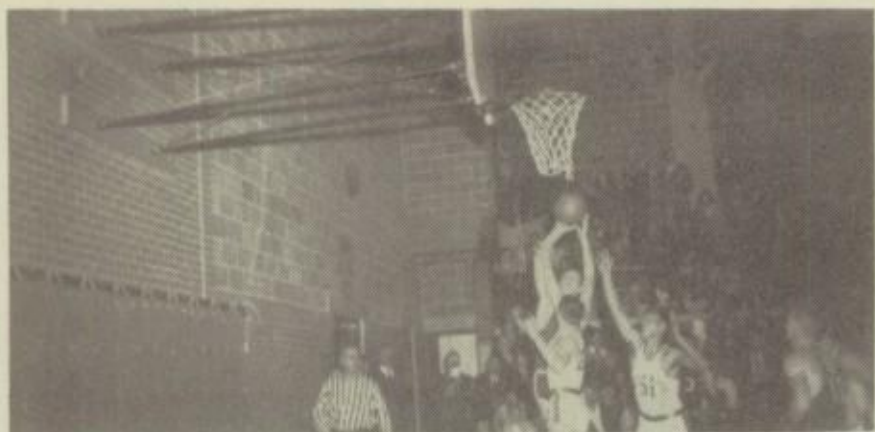

Under Coach Herman Millikan the Red Raider basketball team completed its second year of competition in the Hawkeye Seven Conference by winning fourth place in the Conference. Corning won five while losing seven Conference games and won four and lost one non-conference games, making a total of nine wins to eight losses.

Letters were won in basketball for this year by: Frank Johnson, Gerald Gauthier, Darwin Ogburn, Dean Bassett, Ray Mack, Ed Mullin, and Stanley Brokaw. High scorer for the season was Frank Johnson with 143 points and runner-up was Darwin Ogburn with 130 points. Frank Johnson was named as center on the all-conference team.

With only a squad of 19 boys, Coach Hendren had to work hard to give C. H. S. a well balanced track team. Of five lettermen, Frank Johnson, Ray Mack, Stanley Brokaw, Paul Farris, and Russell Olive, C. H. S. will depend on getting most of its points. The Red Raiders entered the Red Oak relays, Cardinal Relays, Drake Relays, Shenandoah Relays, and the Hawkeye Seven Conference Meet.
